

Subhra Bandyopadhyay is the Head of the department. She has a teaching experience of 31 years. She has completed her MPhil from the University of Calcutta. Her areas of interest include 19th century Bengal, Women's writing, Elizabethan and Victorian poetry. She has participated in SAM workshop organised by the college in 2009. She has completed a UGC-funded Minor Research Project on '19th Century Bengali Women with Reference to the Works of Vidyasagar'.

