

Sudipta Gupta joined the college in 2015. She has already proved her academic acuity by presenting papers both in national and international conferences. She has published papers in reputed journals. She actively participates in different college activities and has become members of different TC committees. She aspires to pursue PhD in the coming session. Her areas of interest include Gender studies and Indian English Literature and Cultural Studies.

